

Medical Coverage Policy | Genetic Testing

EFFECTIVE DATE: 12|20|2013
POLICY LAST UPDATED: 12|20|2013

OVERVIEW

Genetic testing is a technique used to identify people at risk for a specific genetic disease, predict the possibility of future genetic disease, or to determine the risk for transmitting such a disease to their offspring. Testing may also be used as part of the process to identify, confirm, or predict the possibility of a specific medical condition and develop a treatment plan.

PRIOR AUTHORIZATION

Prior authorization is required for BlueCHiP for Medicare and recommended for all other products.

POLICY STATEMENT

BlueCHiP for Medicare and Commercial:

Requests for genetic testing should be obtained via the BCBSRI online preauthorization tool which is available only to BCBSRI participating providers. All other providers need to contact Utilization Management at the number below:

<https://www.bcbsri.com/BCBSRIWeb/Login.do?redirectTo=/providers/preauth/preauthProviderOverview.jsp>

Genetic Testing is considered medically necessary when the criteria in the online authorization tool has been met.

If a Genetic Test or family is not found in the online authorization tool, please fax request to our Utilization Management at 401-272-8885

This medical policy is made available to you for informational purposes only. It is not a guarantee of payment or a substitute for your medical judgment in the treatment of your patients. Benefits and eligibility are determined by the member's subscriber agreement or member certificate and/or the employer agreement, and those documents will supersede the provisions of this medical policy. For information on member-specific benefits, call the provider call center. If you provide services to a member which are determined to not be medically necessary (or in some cases medically necessary services which are non-covered benefits), you may not charge the member for the services unless you have informed the member and they have agreed in writing in advance to continue with the treatment at their own expense. Please refer to your participation agreement(s) for the applicable provisions. This policy is current at the time of publication; however, medical practices, technology, and knowledge are constantly changing.
